Hi, Jeff,

I've just uploaded the files to WeTransfer, so you should be receiving them soon. I've also sent the invoice for this order via email, so do watch your inbox for that as well.

Thank you very much for your duplication order; please let me know if I can offer additional assistance or answer any questions.

Best wishes,
Rachael

Rachael,

Thanks for the update on the maps and newspapers. It appears from what you say that they won't provide us with what we were looking for.

Regarding the other files that we ordered, please send us those files electronically ASAP. You can invoice us at any time for those. We do anticipate requesting some more files, but probably not until later next week.

Regards,

Jeff H.

Hi Jeff,

We looked more closely through the newspapers, but no mention of Anaconda executives was present—only very general discussion of gold mining in the area. As for the maps, they don't identify who prepared them or for whom they were drafted. The only information in the title blocks gives the subject—camp and mill site, etc., and the scale.

I think that we are ready to send your order—the total comes to $508.00, for 508 pages at $1.00 per page. Shall I invoice you and then send the files electronically? We've had great luck using WeTransfer, so if you're amenable, I'll send them through that venue.

Thanks very much for your patience as we worked on your order.

Best wishes,
Rachael
