

News Advisory

State Water Board to Announce November Water Conservation Numbers at Jan. 5 Board Meeting

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Jan. 4, 2016

Contact: George Kostyrko
George.Kostyrko@waterboards.ca.gov

SACRAMENTO – On Tuesday, Jan.5, the State Water Resources Control Board (State Water Board) will release the water conservation data for the month of November-- the sixth month of reporting under Governor Edmund G. Brown Jr.'s mandate for a 25 percent reduction in water use -- at its regularly scheduled Board Meeting.

As soon as discussion begins on item No.4 on the agenda, the latest reporting information will be loaded and available on this webpage. Discussion of this item could occur within the first hour of the board meeting but there is no set time. Please watch the Board Meeting if you are interested in this item.

What: State Water Board Meeting, Jan.5. See the agenda.

When: Meeting starts at 9 a.m. PST, Tuesday, Jan. 5

Where: Coastal Hearing Room, Joe Serna Jr. – CalEPA Building, 1001 I St., Sacramento CA, 95814. Watch the meeting live online.

ATTENTION MEDIA: There will not be a media conference call on this date. One will be scheduled for mid-January to discuss water conservation efforts, enforcement and the future of the emergency water conservation regulation. Media will be notified via advisory once a date is set.

###

