

Dear Ms. Bean,

San Diego County has a two billion dollar agricultural industry. Food is important and so are jobs. Many have already cut back water use. I understand many in the state don't even have water meters and won't until 2025. This is unconscionable.

Please continue to allow our agricultural industry to thrive.

Sincerely,

--
Barbara Zink