

News Advisory

State Water Resources Control Board to Consider Adopting Expanded Emergency Water Conservation Regulation March 17

For Immediate Release

March 16, 2015

Contact: George Kostyrko

Day of meeting (916) 508-9563

What: As California enters a fourth year of severe drought, the State Water Resources Control Board (State Water Board) on Tuesday, March 17, will discuss and consider adopting an expanded emergency regulation to safeguard the state's remaining water supplies.

Click hyperlink to read the Proposed Resolution

Click hyperlink to read the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

Click hyperlink to read the Proposed Text of Emergency Regulations

Click hyperlink to read the Emergency Regulations Digest

Click hyperlink to read a fact sheet on the emergency regulations first passed in July 2014

Where: Coastal Room (2nd floor), CalEPA building 1001 I St., Sacramento CA 95814

Media attending the meeting will have access to a 10 input audio Multibox for Line Level sound. This public hearing and adoption item could go until noon or 1 p.m.

Watch it Live!

MEETING will be live streamed here: <http://www.calepa.ca.gov/Broadcast/>

When: Meeting begins at 9 a.m. March 17. The board takes up items in order. The consideration of re-adopting emergency water conservation regulations is item #7 on the agenda.

More Information: Board Agenda can be found here

