

From: Robert Petersen
To: commentletters
Subject: Climate changes
Date: Friday, February 10, 2017 6:09:35 PM

---

You are making regulations that are ever limiting the amount of Quality drinking water, while at the same time the ground water quality is not improving due to over-population and agriculture.

You should encourage R/O systems in every home and give up your losing battle for increasing ground water quality. It is a very expensive battle for the consumer and you are going to lose it eventually, so It is time to take a step back and move into the future with in home filtration..