

2013 Water Quality Coordinating Committee (WQCC) Meeting

WQCC October 24-25, 2013

Environmental Justice:

- What Are the Water Boards Doing?
- What Tools Do the Water Boards Have?

Example of Mussel Bed

Tribal Beneficial Uses

At right:
Generational
Fishing techniques

Gathering Seaweed:
Yurok Burden Basket

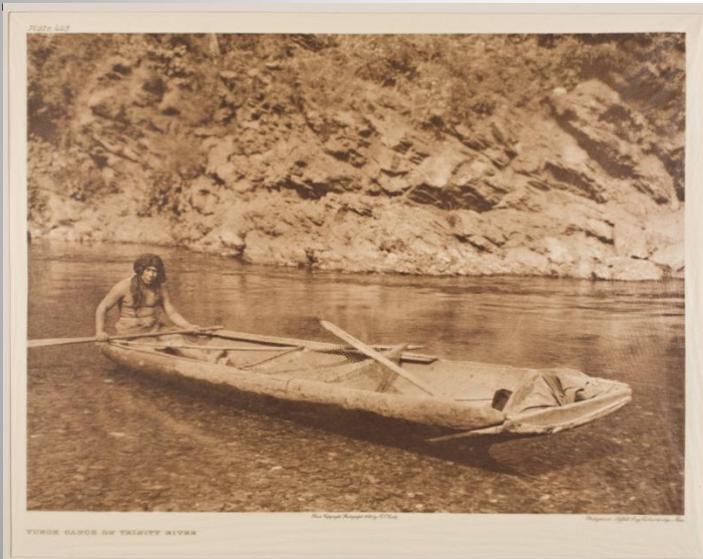

At right:
Pacific
Lamprey

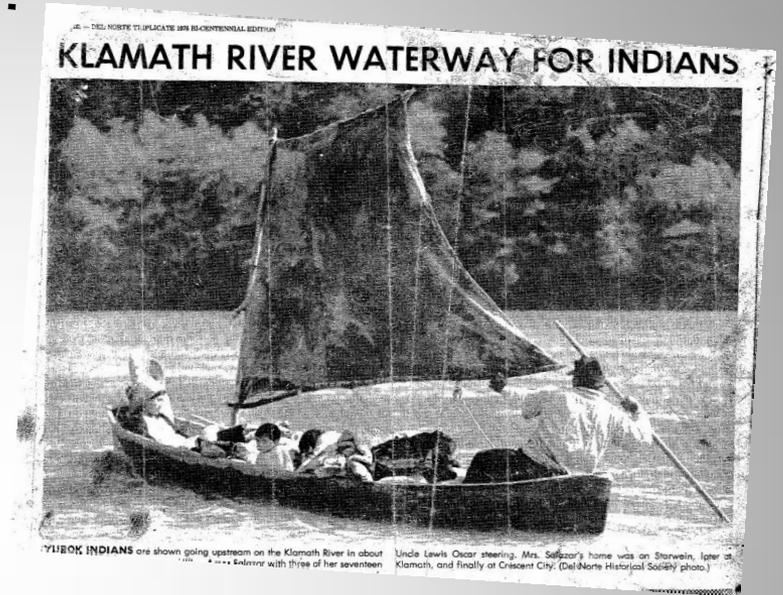

NARRATIVES

•INCLUSIVENESS

•BASIN PLAN AMENDMENT

The rivers were tribal 'Highways'

Redwood Canoes outfitted with sails for ocean travel

Yurok Woman cooking acorns in a cooking basket

Jump Dance Basket Design

Traditional Yurok Caps

Young women in ceremonial regalia

Identify Tribal Type

- Federally Recognized: (103)
 - Federal and State Political Unit
- State Recognized: Heritage Commission
 - State Political Unit
- Non Recognized:
 - Ethnic Origin

Different Capacities and Skill Sets

False Klamath Cove, Southern View

California's Government Is Complex

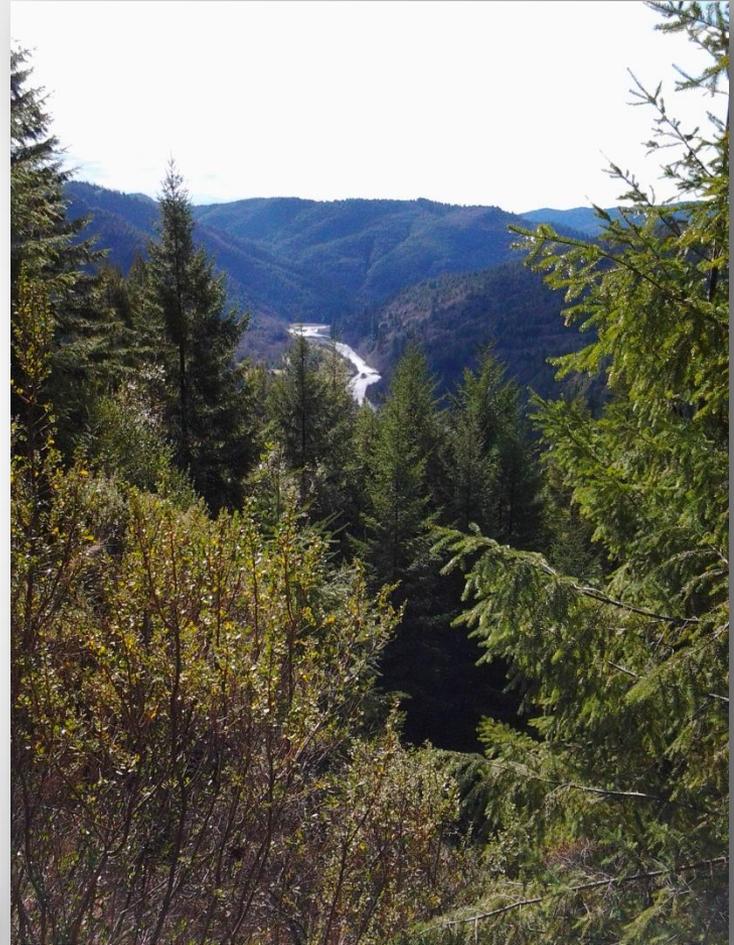

There are 369 Agencies within California's Government.

How many can YOU name?

State Consultation Policy

- Who to contact
- Due Process Hearings

Governor Brown

Questions?

Presented by:
John Corbett
Water Quality
Regional Board
Member

Oregos Rock at the mouth of the Klamath River

The Yurok tribal design used in this presentation is Friendship design.