If you are the owner of commercial irrigated lands and you are NOT currently a member of the East San Joaquin Water Quality Coalition (Coalition), you have three options.

- 1. Join the Coalition by 13 May 2013. The Central Valley Water Board worked closely with agricultural and other interests to develop a cost effective program for complying with the State's water quality law. Under the General Order, the landowner, or your tenant, may enroll your irrigated agricultural parcel(s) directly with the Coalition (see next page). To take advantage of this option, you must enroll your parcel(s) with the Coalition by 13 May 2013. After that date, landowners must apply to the Central Valley Water Board to join a Coalition. Additional fees will apply to applications after 15 May 2013 and the board has the discretion to reject the application and regulate the landowner directly.
- 2. Obtain Coverage Under the General Waste Discharge Requirements for Individual Growers. The Central Valley Water Board is currently considering the adoption of general Waste Discharge Requirements for landowners who chose not to join a Coalition group. Board staff anticipates that costs and requirements will be similar to Option 3. However, the process for getting regulatory coverage will be simplified with the submission of a Notice of Intent, rather than a report of waste discharge.
- 3. Obtain an Individual Permit¹. You can apply to have your own individual Waste Discharge Requirements (a permit). Depending on the specific site conditions, growers with their own individual WDRs would likely be required to monitor runoff from their property, install monitoring wells, and submit technical reports regarding their actions to comply with their Waste Discharge Requirements. Costs would include State administrative fees (for example, annual fees for farm sizes from 10-100 acres are currently $750 + $5/acre); cost to prepare a report of waste discharge; and monitoring and reporting costs.

You do NOT need regulatory coverage under this Order if:

- Your commercial irrigated lands are covered by the General Order for Existing Milk Cow Dairies (R5-2007-0035) or NPDES Dairy General Permit CAG015001 (Dairy General Orders). Please notify board staff of your parcels that have Dairy General Order coverage so you do not receive further inquiries from the board regarding regulatory coverage of those parcels.
- If your agricultural-zoned property is not used for commercial irrigated agriculture, please notify board staff so you do not receive further inquiries from the board regarding regulatory coverage under this Order.
