Pursuant to Water Code section 13323, the Discharger may:

If the Discharger chooses to sign the waiver and pay the assessed civil liability, this will be considered a tentative settlement of the violations in the Complaint. This settlement will be considered final pending a 30-day period of public notice, during which time interested parties may comment on this action by submitting information to this office, attention Dale Essary. Administrative Civil Liability Order may include increasing the dollar amount of the assessed civil liability. Specific notice about this hearing and its procedures are enclosed with this Complaint.

If the Discharger would like to rebut the presumption in the Complaint regarding an ability to pay the proposed liability, it must submit detailed financial information to the Central Valley Water Board by 1 April 2015. That information must include a balance sheet of outstanding debts and liabilities, as well as the information detailed on the attached Administrative Civil Liability Fact Sheet (See Attachment B).

Payment of this assessed civil liability amount ($34,650) does not absolve the Discharger from complying with the Reissued General Order, the terms of which remain in effect. Additional civil liability may be assessed in the future if the Discharger fails to comply with the Reissued General Order in a timely manner.
