

Why don't you guys just get the hell out of our lives and let the counties manage septic systems as they have in the past? It has always worked well in El Dorado County.

We don't need a single new rule from the state.
Jim Copeland