

Project 1a/b – Performance Metrics

Presented below are general performance concepts to be further refined by project team that would evolve into measureable metrics.

1. Increase the number of capture and use systems constructed and functioning in those areas of the state where capture and use is feasible. Document areas where physical environment and climate is conducive for infiltration.
2. Reduce the time needed for permittees to acquire approvals and permits associated with stormwater capture and use projects.