
From: Save the Stan <savethestan@gmail.com>
Sent: Monday, August 01, 2016 2:20 PM
To: Howard, Tom@Waterboards; Marcus, Felicia@Waterboards; Spivy-Weber, Frances@Waterboards; Dadamo, Dorene@Waterboards; Moore, Steven@Waterboards; Doduc, Tam@Waterboards; WateBoardsPublicAffairs, OPA@Waterboards
Subject: Better ways to help fish

Water board,

The Stanislaus River is vital to our economy. We are a farming economy, primarily, in the San Joaquin Valley and water is essential. Research clearly has shown that the current method of managing the river does not change the fish population. There are other ways to conserve fish, such as habitat restoration and controlling predation. Please do not raise unimpaired flows in the river.

Thank you.

Judy DeJong
Oakdale