

I am opposed to any further reduction in water availability to the residents of Carmel...The current water usage policy is already very restrictive, further reductions will create both personal and property loss to the residents. Effort should be made to find alternative sources of water, ie desal, dam etc...stop worrying about fish!...

Jim Heuerman, Carmel, CA...

