

SANDRA SCHUBERT

Undersecretary Sandra Schubert was appointed by Governor Jerry Brown in May of 2011. She has spent two decades as a legal and political strategist for government and non-profits on a variety of agricultural, public health, environmental and resource issues, and has nearly 15 years experience working in Washington, DC. On behalf of the Majority Leader of the U.S. Senate and a Ranking Committee member, she developed and successfully carried out campaigns on major energy, environmental quality and agricultural issues. Undersecretary Schubert has advised Presidential, Congressional and local campaigns on a range of issues. Undersecretary Schubert has lectured nationally on numerous issues and taught at the Georgetown University School of Law.