

Rokke, Jon@Waterboards

From: Eleanor Seavey <billseavey@gmail.com>
Sent: Saturday, March 2, 2019 10:08 AM
To: Rokke, Jon@Waterboards
Cc: cambrians4water@gmail.com
Subject: Rwcqb update

I support the continued efforts to make Cambria's SWF fully functional by being able to transport brine to an outside location rather than the use of the ill designed pond.

There is no question in my mind that the SWF is needed during drought periods and once it is, shall we say, perfected and fully put on line it will be an essential, and outstanding, addition to water security in our community.

William Seavey
16 year resident of Cambria
Former "Green Savings" columnist for Cambrian Co owner, Her Castle b&b

Sent from my iPad