

CALIFORNIA REGIONAL WATER QUALITY CONTROL BOARD
CENTRAL VALLEY REGION

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Concerning

A RESOLUTION TO APPROVE
LOCAL AGENCY MANAGEMENT PROGRAM
FOR
KERN COUNTY ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH DIVISION

The State Water Resources Control Board's Water Quality Control Policy for Siting, Design, Operation, and Maintenance of Onsite Wastewater Treatment Systems (the "OWTS Policy") regulates small domestic OWTS. The OWTS Policy allows for the continued use of OWTS under Local Agency oversight, establishes minimum risk-based standards, and requires Local Agencies to assess water quality. Local Agencies may either directly implement the conservative low-risk standards in the OWTS Policy or develop a Local Agency Management Program (LAMP). When a local agency within the Central Valley Region prepares a LAMP, the Central Valley Regional Water Quality Control Board (Central Valley Water Board or Board) is required to review the LAMP to determine whether it is protective of human health and water quality.

The Kern County Public Health Services, Environmental Health Division has submitted a LAMP for the Board's approval. Board staff has reviewed the LAMP and has concluded that it is consistent with the OWTS Policy. Board staff has proposed that the Central Valley Water Board consider a resolution approving Kern County's LAMP at a public hearing scheduled for:
