

Save-the-Date and Register: April 5, 2022 Tribal Beneficial Uses Update Meeting

Central Valley Regional Water Board Tribal Beneficial Uses Update Meeting: Tuesday, April 5, 2022 | 10:00 AM-12:00 PM

The Central Valley Regional Water Quality Control Board (Central Valley Water Board) invites you to save the date to attend its upcoming Tribal Beneficial Uses (TBU) Update Meeting on April 5, 2022, from 10AM-12PM. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Central Valley Water Board will be holding this meeting virtually via Zoom videoconference and will provide a call-in option.

The purpose of this meeting is to provide an update following the Central Valley Water Board's adoption of the TBU definitions to the Basin Plans on February 18, 2022. We will also continue the discussion of the TBU designation process by soliciting further input to incorporate in the development of the designation process.

Pre-registration is respectfully requested. Agenda and meeting materials to be provided to registered guests prior to the meeting. If you plan on attending, please register by replying to this email or send a separate email to RB5S-TBU@Waterboards.ca.gov requesting attendance by Friday, March 25, 2022.

NOTE: This invitation has only been extended to Tribes, Tribal organizations, and confirmed consultants or individuals representing Tribes. This meeting is not open to the general public. If Tribes would like a representative not affiliated with a Tribe or Tribal organization to attend on their behalf, please send an email confirming the representative to the contacts below.

If you have questions or would like to talk more about the TBU designation process, please reach out to Taran Sahota and Lauren Smitherman by e-mail at Taranjot.Sahota@waterboards.ca.gov and Lauren.Smitherman@waterboards.ca.gov.
