

Central Valley Water Board Workshop
1685 E Street
Fresno, CA 93706
Region-Wide Salt and Nitrate Management Planning – CV-SALTS
June 12, 2012
1:00 – 4:00 p.m.

Remote observation of the workshop will be available in the Sacramento Office

Purpose:

- Inform Board of salinity background and CV-SALTS Effort Plan and Status
- Receive feedback and comments from Board on approach, workplan, schedule and milestones
- Receive feedback and comments from Board on Archetypes/Prototypes and Management Practice Toolbox

1. Opening Statement and Introduction – Pamela Creedon
2. Background of Salinity and Nutrients in the Central Valley – Jeanne Chilcott
3. Overview of CV-SALTS – David Cory
4. Strategy/Framework, Workplan, and Milestones for Salts and Nitrates – Daniel Cozad

Board Feedback – Are we headed in the right direction; are any important issues missing?

5. Addressing difficult questions and charting a path – Archetypes/Prototypes – Tim Moore
 - a. General overview/status
 - b. Decisions to date
 - c. Decisions in progress Policy Discussions: proposed case studies (archetypes/prototypes)

Board Feedback - do these address important issues for the Board?

6. Current Implementation and Policy Efforts – Parry Klassen
7. Public Input/Comment
8. Summary/Closing – Jeff Willett