

State Water Resources Control Board

Regrading Policy

The Operator Certification Unit will begin re-grading all water treatment and water distribution exams with a score of 67% - 69% before the exam results are mailed out. This will ensure that no mistakes were made during the scanning of the answer sheet and operators will no longer have to request a re-grade once they receive their results.