

GOLDEN STATE SALMON

We're at the very southern edge of king salmon habitat in North America.

These salmon...

...keep these afloat

As well as many small neighboring businesses

Like Tim Elie's Outdoor Pro Shop in Rohnert Park

Ocean salmon anglers spend over $150 on average just to try to catch a salmon

People wait in long lines for a chance to fish salmon

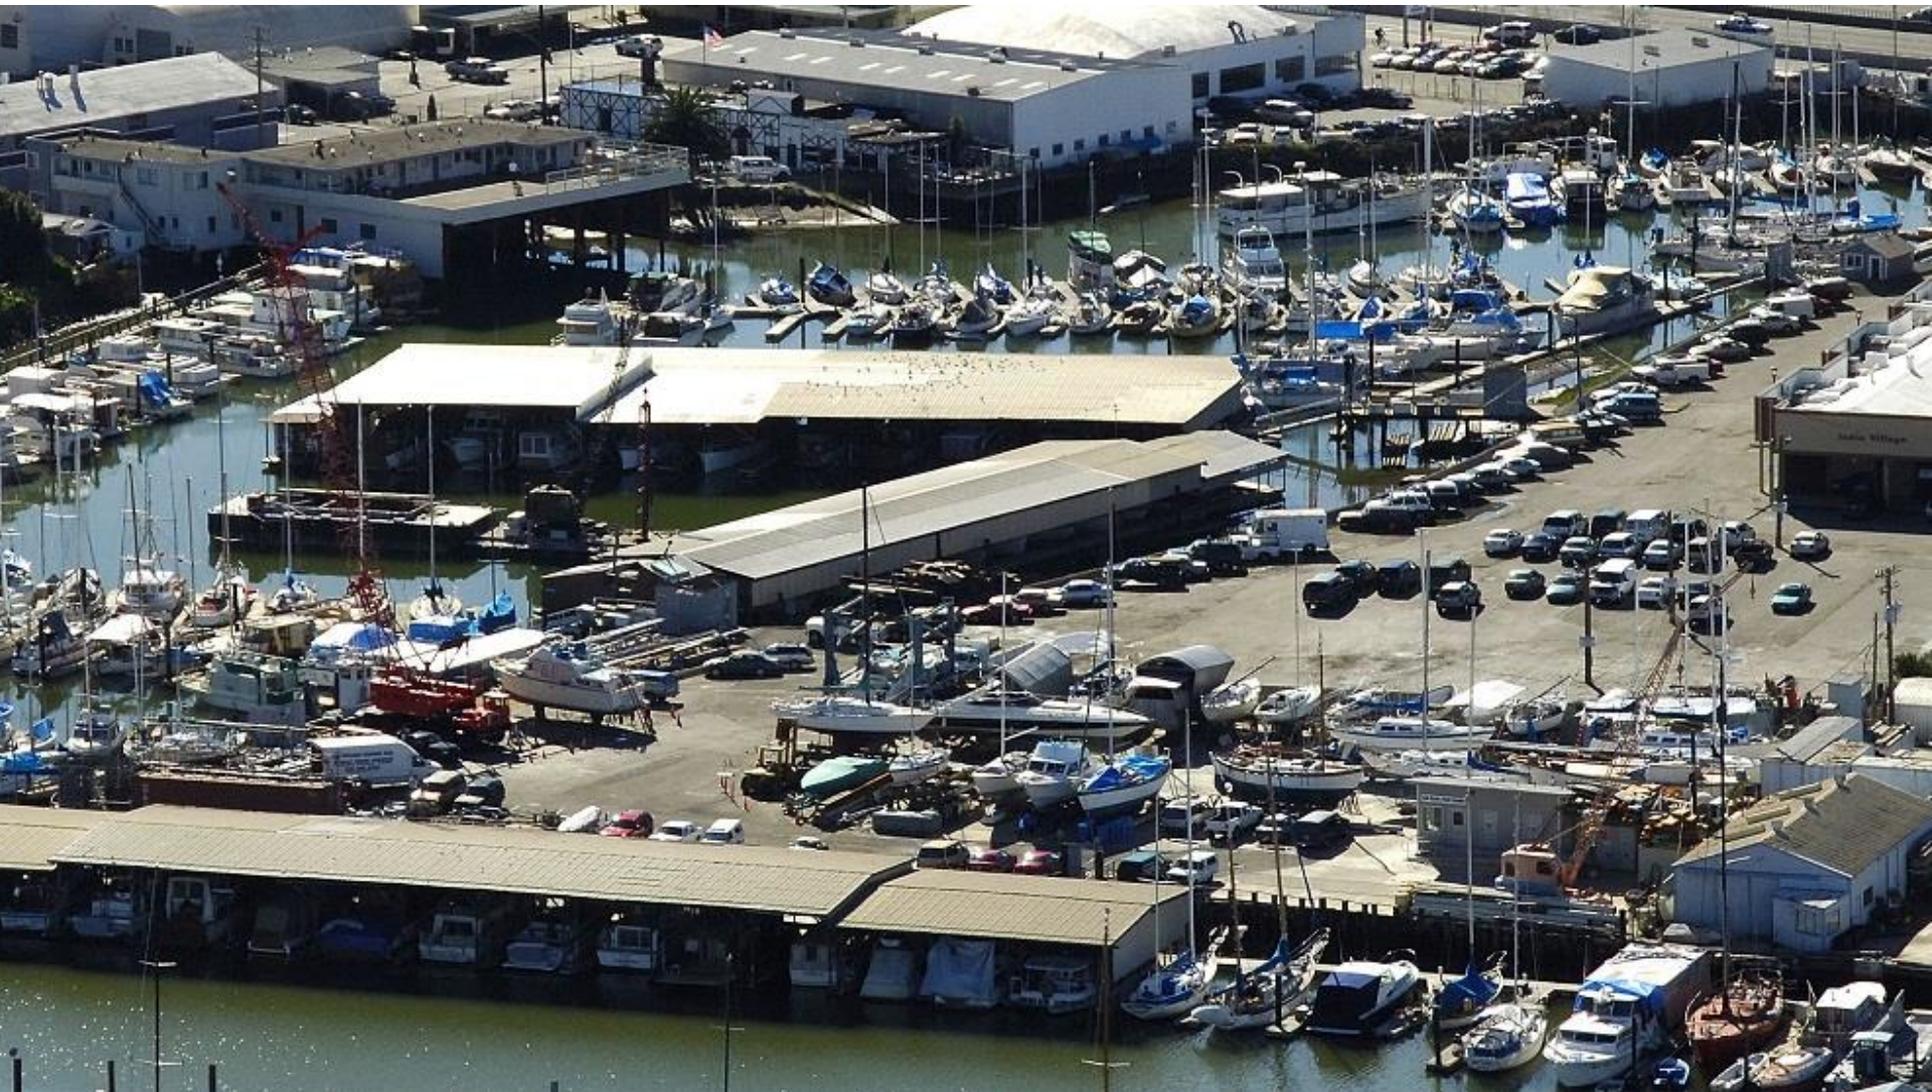

They pay a lot of money to pack onto charter boats all up and down the coast to fish salmon

They pack into fishing and outdoor shows

Businesses that serve the salmon industry abound in Central and Northern California

Moss Landing

Sacramento River fishing supports many families by providing food for many and employment for some

Humans aren't the only ones that like salmon

Salmon just need a little water to survive

Please don't let any more California rivers die

Commercial harvesters in action

Salmon is one of the only wild foods people can buy directly from the producer

Salmon harvesters are the strongest advocates for the resource

Our working waterfronts

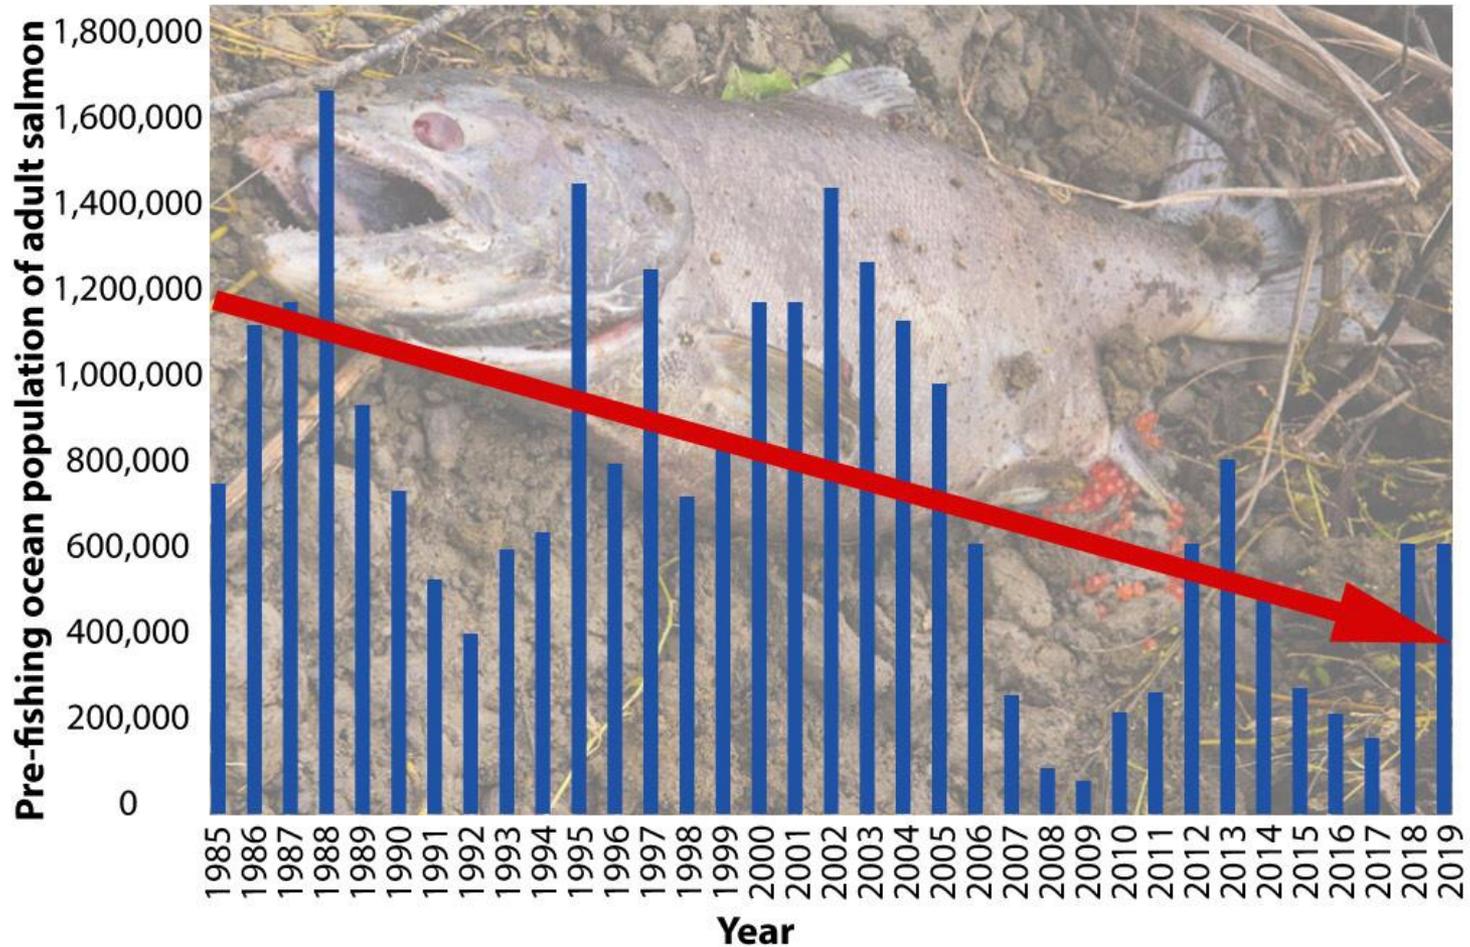

Why are our activities view as less important than theirs?

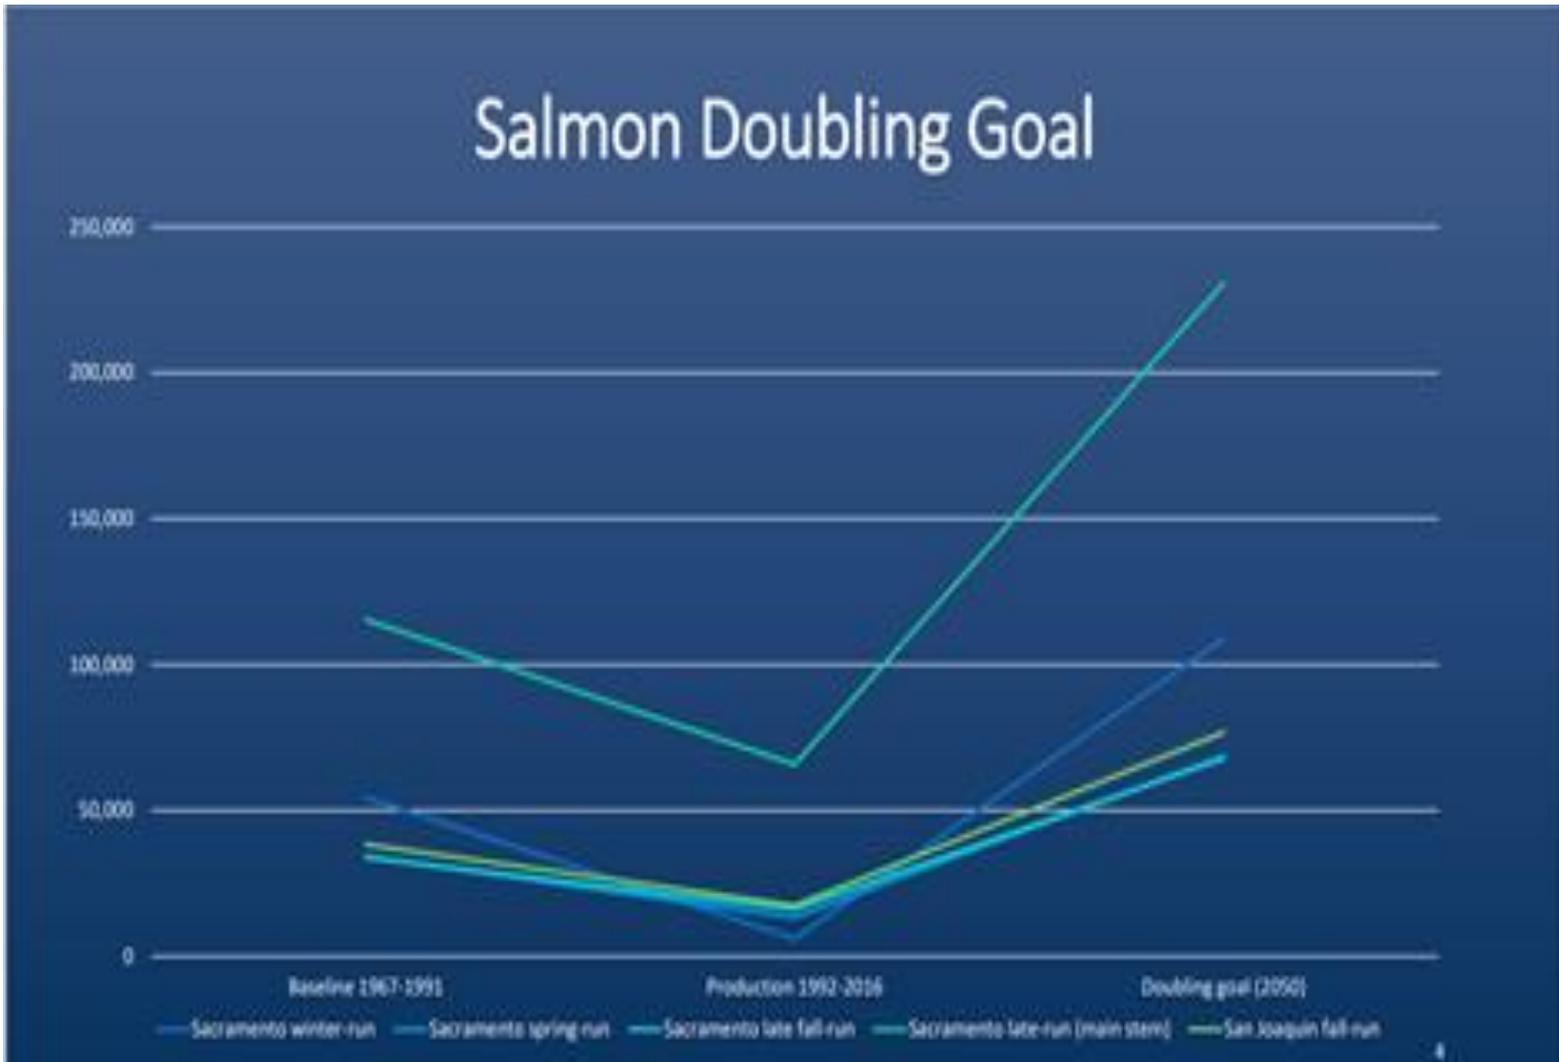

For a luxury food consumed largely overseas
