

From: Chris Portmann [<mailto:cportmann@west-mark.com>]
Sent: Tuesday, September 20, 2016 9:06 AM
To: Marcus, Felicia@Waterboards
Subject: Worth the fight

Agriculture is the staple of all business in the valley. Sending more water down the river will only insure that Agriculture stops and we run out of water on lean years. When that happens business will leave and jobs will be lost. There should be more dams build and more water held back for drought years. Everybody benefits when we control the water with Reservoirs. When we send all the water down no body benefits at all.

In GOD we Trust

Chris Portmann
West-Mark
2704 Railroad Ave
Ceres CA 95307

O: 209-356-3318
F: 209-537-1753