

Should the TDML amendment regarding copper pain in MDR pass, I as well as countless other 99 percenters will sadly be forced to either sell their boats or leave MDR for a more financially realistic environment.

This is not an idle threat. This is reality.

John Marshall