

NATIONAL STEEL AND SHIPBUILDING COMPANY'S CASE-IN-CHIEF

In the Matter of Tentative Cleanup and Abatement Order No. R9-2011-0001 (Shipyard Sediment Cleanup)

Kelly E. Richardson

November 14, 2011

LATHAM & WATKINS<sup>LLP</sup>

Dr. Herbert Allen

- Ph.D. in Environmental Chemistry from University of Michigan
- Professor Emeritus of Environmental Engineering at the University of Delaware
  - Over 50 years experience in Environmental Chemistry
  - Specialty in metal speciation and bioavailability
- 10 years as Director of Center for Study of Metals, funded by EPA
- 7 years as EPA Science Advisory Board consultant
- Over 160 publications concerning the fate and effects of trace metals in aquatic and soil environments

Mr. David Templeton

- Senior Partner – Sediment Management, Anchor QEA LLP
- M.S. in Environmental Chemistry
- 22 Years of experience with sediment projects throughout nation
- Managed numerous projects through investigation - construction
- Successful track record with multi-party cleanups
- Expert on the application of sediment cleanup technologies
- Campbell Shipyard project in San Diego Bay
- Experienced with operating shipyards