As circulated for public comment, the paragraph on page 13 titled Enforcement of the Tentative Order provided as follows:

The Santa Ana Water Board reserves the right to take any enforcement action authorized by law. Accordingly, failure to timely comply with any provisions of the M&RP may subject the Discharger to enforcement action. Such actions include, but are not limited to, the assessment of administrative civil liability pursuant to Water Code sections 13323, 13268, and 13350, a Time Schedule Order (TSO) issued pursuant to Water Code sections 13300 and 13308, or referral to the California Attorney General for recovery of judicial civil liability. Failure to comply with the M&RP may result in the assessment of administrative civil liability of up to $10,000 per violation, per day, depending on the violation. Failure to comply with the M&RP may result in the assessment of administrative civil liability of up to $10,000 per violation, per day, depending on the violation.

Based on subsequent review, the paragraph on page 13 titled Enforcement should be revised as follows:

The Santa Ana Water Board reserves the right to take any enforcement action authorized by law. Accordingly, failure to timely comply with this Order or any provisions of the M&RP may subject the Discharger to enforcement action. Such actions include, but are not limited to, the assessment of administrative civil liability pursuant to Water Code sections 13323, 13268, and 13350, a Time Schedule Order (TSO) issued pursuant to Water Code sections 13300 and 13308, or referral to the California Attorney General for recovery of judicial civil liability. ~~Failure to comply with the M&RP may result in the assessment of administrative civil liability of up to $10,000 per violation, per day, depending on the violation.~~
