

SIMPSON, 1945
SEINE SURVEY

Sta. No. 49 Orig. No.

Locality: Redwood Creek at Orick on Highway #101 at bridge, Humboldt Co., Calif.

Water: clear

Vegetation: green and brown algae

Bottom: rock, gravel, sand

Shore: water Temp: 58°F noon

Distance from shore: Current: ENE, faint

Depth of capture: 1' Tide:

Method of capture: 12' seine Depth of water: 1'-4'

Collected by: R. A. Helen Simpson Date: Sept. 22, 1945

Orig. preserv.: 10% formaldehyde Time: noon

preserved alive

- 045 #15011 Cottus asper 10 specimens small young and half-grown
- 045 #15012 Cottus gulosus 29 specimens small young
- 045 #15013 Salmo g. gairdnerii 128 specimens small young
- 045 #15014 Desterosteus aculeatus 374 specimens
all ages, mostly young

Note: Fourteen hauls with seine made for above catch.
Air temp. 58°F noon. Examined Klamath River at Etna. Not workable with seine. Hook-and-line fishermen not catching much.