

WATER CODE

SECTION 1700-1707

1700. Water appropriated under the Water Commission Act or this code for one specific purpose shall not be deemed to be appropriated for any other or different purpose, but the purpose of the use of such water may be changed as provided in this code.

1701. At any time after notice of an application is given, an applicant, permittee, or licensee may change the point of diversion, place of use, or purpose of use from that specified in the application, permit, or license; but such change may be made only upon permission of the board.

1701.1. A petition for change filed after notice of an application shall meet all of the following requirements:

- (a) State the name and address of the petitioner.
- (b) Be signed by the petitioner, or the petitioner's agent or attorney.
- (c) Set forth amendments to the application or an amended application reflecting the proposed change, including any information necessary for the amended application to comply with Section 1260.
- (d) Include sufficient information to demonstrate a reasonable likelihood that the proposed change will not injure any other legal user of water.
- (e) Contain other appropriate information and be in the form required by applicable regulations.

1701.2. A petition for change in a permit or license shall meet all of the following requirements:

- (a) State the name and address of the petitioner.
- (b) Be signed by the petitioner, or the petitioner's agent or attorney.
- (c) Include all information reasonably available to the petitioner, or that can be obtained from the Department of Fish and Wildlife, concerning the extent, if any, to which fish and wildlife would be affected by the change, and a statement of any measures proposed to be taken for the protection of fish and wildlife in connection with the change.
- (d) Include sufficient information to demonstrate a reasonable likelihood that the proposed change will not injure any other legal user of water.
- (e) Contain other appropriate information and be in the form required by applicable regulations.

1701.3. (a) After a petition is filed, the board may request additional information reasonably necessary to clarify, amplify, correct, or otherwise supplement the information required to be submitted under this chapter. The board shall provide a reasonable period for submitting the information.

(b) The additional information may include, but need not be limited to, any of the following:

(1) Information needed to demonstrate that the change will not injure any other legal user of water.

(2) Information needed to demonstrate that the change will comply with any applicable requirements of the Fish and Game Code or the federal Endangered Species Act of 1973 (16 U.S.C. Sec. 1531 et seq.).

(3) Information needed to comply with Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code.

1701.4. If, within the period provided, the petitioner does not provide the information requested pursuant to Section 1701.3, the board shall cancel the petition, unless, for good cause shown, the board allows additional time to submit the requested information.

1702. Before permission to make such a change is granted the petitioner shall establish, to the satisfaction of the board, and it shall find, that the change will not operate to the injury of any legal user of the water involved.

1703. After filing a petition for permission to make a change, the petitioner, in case the board so requires, shall cause notice thereof to be given or published in the manner prescribed by the board. In all cases the petitioner shall notify the Department of Fish and Wildlife in writing of the proposed change.

1703.1. Any interested person, within the time allowed in the notice of petition, or within the time the board may allow for good cause shown, may file with the board a written protest against approval of the petition.

1703.2. The protest shall meet all of the following requirements:

(a) State the name and address of the protestant.

(b) Be signed by the protestant, or the protestant's agent or attorney.

(c) Clearly and specifically set forth the protestant's objections to the approval of the petition, and state the bases for these objections.

(d) Contain other appropriate information and be in the form required by applicable regulations.

(e) Be served on the petitioner by the protestant by mailing a duplicate copy of the protest to the petitioner or through service undertaken in another manner determined to be adequate by the board.

1703.3. The board may request from the protestant additional information reasonably necessary to clarify, amplify, correct, or otherwise supplement the information required to be submitted pursuant to Section 1703.2. The board shall provide a reasonable
