

Statement of Qualifications for James Peifer, PE

Registration: California Registered Civil Engineer, License No. C 57545

Education: Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering, University of California at Davis, June 1994

Experience: June 2013 to Present - City of Sacramento, Department of Utilities
Principal Engineer, (October 2015 to Present)
Supervising Engineer (June 2013 to October 2015)

Responsible for managing the Government Affairs Section within the Department of Utilities.

- Review and analysis of legislative and regulatory proposals. Develop and coordinate the Department's positions and input.
- Coordination with the City Attorney's Office and outside legal counsel on matters affecting the City's water rights and supply.
- Representative for the Water Forum, Regional Water Authority, and Sacramento Groundwater Authority.

June 2003 to June 2013 - City of Sacramento, Department of Utilities
Senior Civil Engineer

Responsible for planning the water supply for the City of Sacramento.

- Preparation of planning studies relating to water supply, including the City's Urban Water Management Plans, the Groundwater Master Plan, and the Water Supply Master Plan.
- Management of activities relating to the City's hydraulic model.
- Preparation of plans and specifications for pipelines, pump stations, and modifications at the water treatment plants.
- Review and coordinate the response to proposals, studies and environmental documents that may affect the City's water supply.

April 2002 to June 2003 - Sacramento County, Department of Water Resources
Associate Civil Engineer

Responsible for implementation of the Freeport Regional Water Project:

- Directing the work of engineering and environmental consultants.
- Managing the implementation of the Sacramento County Water Agency (Water Agency) surface water treatment plant.
- Making presentations to boards of directors, community groups, and the public.
- Assist in the processing of the Water Agency water rights application.
- Coordinating Water Agency projects with regulatory agencies.
- Negotiating property acquisition.
- Developing and implementing public outreach programs.

- Developing and maintaining positive relationships with various stakeholders of Water Agency projects, including agricultural, environmental, and business organizations and municipal agencies.

November 1997 to April 2002 - Boyle Engineering Corporation
Associate Civil Engineer

Responsible for planning, design and construction management of public works facilities. Specific duties included preparing construction plans for water lines, water booster stations, water treatment plant, transportation and drainage improvements. Preparation of water and sewer planning reports, water distribution modeling.

November 1994 to November 1997 - Wilson Engineering
Associate Engineer

Responsible for planning and design of water and sewer facilities. Specific duties included preparing construction plans for water and sewer lines, sewage lift stations, water booster stations, and wastewater treatment plant and process engineering. Preparation of water and sewer planning reports, water distribution system and sewer collection system modeling.