I am writing to you as I sit along the American River, an ecosystem I care about deeply. I moved to CA because of the incredible biodiversity and stunning destinations. I ask you to meet the co-equal goals of ecosystem preservation in the Bay Delta Water Quality Control Plan. To help us restore our keystone species like salmon and other fish. Low river flows and increasing salinity destroy fish populations and critical ecosystems. Our communities along the Delta and beyond depend on our rivers and the estuary. When I drove to the American River from San Francisco I saw the collapsing cities along the Delta and their signs begging us to keep the water in the
