Dear Felicia Marcus,

As I'm sitting on the bank of the American River and I look at the natural beauty, I am blown away by the scenery. This sanctuary has come to mean so much to me, as I have the other Californian rivers such as the Tuolumne and San Joaquin. I strongly support the increase of unimpaired water ways and would be thrilled if we were able to keep as much water in the rivers so wildlife can flourish once again. In times of drought, I know you're faced with a lot of pressure to take from these resources but I implore you to stand strong and not forget about the natural rivers that need our protection.

Many thanks,
Monica Greene
