NOTICE OF DEFICIENCY:
FAILURE TO FILE ANNUAL DIVERSION AND USE REPORT
STATEMENT S014790

To Whom It May Concern:

You are required to file water diversion and use reports to the State Water Resources Control Board (State Water Board) using the online Reporting Management System even if no water was diverted or used. The State Water Resources Control Board, Division of Water Rights (Division) has not received your annual diversion and use report for the 2017 reporting year.

To avoid being subject to an enforcement action, complete your outstanding annual diversion and use report no later than August 17, 2018. Failure to correct this deficiency may result in you being subject to a $13,000 potential liability. This amount continues to increase daily while the deficiency remains uncorrected.

Section 920 of Article 2, Chapter 2.7, Title 23, of the California Code of Regulations requires Statement Holders to report their water diversion and use each year. The annual diversion and use report is due no later than July 1 of the following year (i.e. the calendar year 2017 report is due by July 1, 2018). Those who fail to file the annual diversion and use report by the deadline are in violation of this regulation.

Any person who violates a regulation adopted by the State Water Board may be liable for an amount not to exceed $500 for each day in which the violation occurs. (Water Code section 1846, subdivision (a)(2)) The State Water Board may impose this liability administratively through an Administrative Civil Liability Complaint. (Water code section 1055)

To access the Report Management System and report your water diversions and use, please visit this webpage (<https://rms.waterboards.ca.gov>) and use the following user id and password to log in:
