

About time for common sense, people (farmers, ranchers, and us, we the people) are doing just fine without the government interfering with us. We do not need to give our water to those in Southern California and not be allowed to have a say in how it is distributed. We also do not want people who are not from Northern California to tell us how to use the water. Please listen to US! Bonnie Mayer, Lodi CA