

Here we go again with the water export from the Tuolumne, Stanislaus and Merced Rivers. Just leave our water rights alone, leave as they are now. We don't want increase in water or electricity. I, a citizen of the state of California, and a voter, disapprove of your plan to export water from these rivers. Leave our farmland waters alone!

Lynn Sigafoose
Groveland, CA

Sent from My iPad