Appendix C: Water Commission Act of 1913

REVIEW OF THE LAWS ESTABLISHING THE SWRCB'S PERMITTING AUTHORITY OVER APPROPRIATIONS OF GROUNDWATER CLASSIFIED AS SUBTERRANEAN STREAMS AND THE SWRCB'S IMPLEMENTATION OF THOSE LAWS

CHAPTER 58

An act to regulate the use of water which is subject to such stream to lands riparian to such stream shall be conclusive presumption that the use of such non-applied water is no of streams or of such portion or portions of such capacity needed on said riparian lands for a useful or beneficial ten consecutive years of any portion of the waters of any as the public good may require; declaring what water may any of its members; appropriating money for carrying out of the state water commission; specifying the duties of all be appropriated; declaring that the non-application for the works necessary to such utilization to the full capacity members and employees; declaring what water is unapthe indebtedness and expenses of said commission, its the provisions of this act; providing for the payment of persons summoned as witnesses before said commission or that certain courts shall take judicial notice of certain acts co-operation of courts with said commission; providing propriated; providing for the utilization of water and pointed members of said commission; providing for the mission; providing for the removal from office of the apauthority of said commission and its members; providing members of said commission; fixing the powers, duties and mission; fixing the terms of office and compensation of the viding for the appointment of the members of said comcreating a state water commission; specifying and pro control by the State of California, and in that behal for the filling of vacancies in the membership of said com-

> water rights; specifying certain duties of the claimants sion, by the attorney general, for the quieting of title to persons, or, upon the direction of the state water commisrights; providing for the bringing of actions by certain providing for the ascertainment and adjudication of water appropriate water and by the appropriators of water, of fees and charges by the applicants for permission to water may be appropriated; providing for the payment may be appropriated and the conditions under which propriate water; declaring the periods for which water priation; declaring the duties of those who desire to apdeemed to be in the use of the state and subject to appropurpose; declaring that such non-applied water shall be how this act shall be known; making legislative declaration all acts or parts of acts in conflict with this act; declaring counties, municipal water districts, irrigation districts and water rights forfeited under certain conditions; regulations possessors or users of water or water rights; declaring concerning those parts of this act which may not be ing certain words and terms used in this act; repealing ing the appropriation of water; excepting cities, cities and lighting districts from certain provisions of this act; defindeclared unconstitutional

[Approved June 16, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

January, nineteen hundred and fourteen, one until the first years; provided, however, that of the members first appointed sion shall be appointed by the governor for the term of four state engineer, respectively. Three members of said commismission shall be, ex officio, the governor of the state and the is hereby created and established. Two members of said com-created day in January, nineteen hundred and fifteen, and one until one shall be appointed to hold office until the first day in of this act a state water commission consisting of five persons commission sioners shall elect one of their number president of the one thereof shall have had practical knowledge and experience and experience in the use of water for mining purposes, and knowledge and experience in the use of water for agricultural so appointed that at least one thereof shall have had practical for irrigation, mining and municipal purposes, and shall be Such appointive commissioners shall be men of practical Qualifications each receive as compensation for his services the sum of commission. The appointed members of said commission shall salary in the use of water for municipal purposes. The commispurposes, and one thereof shall have had practical knowledge knowledge or experience in the application and use of waters the first day in January, nineteen hundred five thousand dollars per annum. No commissioner who is directly or indirectly interested in any matter before the com-SECTION 1. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions Water and sixteen.

commissioners

in all other cases. and stead he sits shall have power, compensation and authority the completion of the investigation and determination for which he was appointed. But the commissioner in whose place nection with the commission shall cease and determine upon mination of which he shall have been appointed and his conthe same, only in the matter for the investigation and deterduring such service and shall have the power and authority of the time of service equal to the compensation of a commissioner Such pro tempore commissioner shall have compensation for act in the place and stead of such interested commissioner, have the power and authority, upon request of the commission to appoint pro tempore some disinterested person to sit and determination of any such matter. But the governor shall gate or report on any such matter; nor shall he take part in any matter; nor shall he be detailed by the commission to investi mission shall sit with the commission during the hearing of such

Vacancies. said seal. mission may direct. All courts shall take judicial notice of copies of records and to such other instruments as the combearing the following inscription: State water commission of California. The seal shall be affixed to all authentications of governor, may remove any one or more of the appointed comshall occur, the governor shall forthwith appoint a qualified by a two-thirds vote of all members elected to each house, or the missioners from office. The commission shall have a seal person to fill the same for the unexpired term. The legislature, SEC. 2. Whenever a vacancy in the state water commission pursuant to such investigation, inquiry or hearing, when approved by the commission and ordered filed in its office, shall decision of the commission. made by the commissioners or the commissioner so designated mission; and every finding, order, ascertainment or decision sioners or commissioner designated for the purpose by the comor hold may be undertaken or held by or before any commisor hearing which the commission has power to undertake be and be deemed to be the finding, order, ascertainment or to be the act of the commission; but any investigations, inquiry the right of the remaining commissioners to exercise all the powers of the commission. The act of a majority of the com-SEC. 3. A majority of the appointed commissioners shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business, for the missioners present, when in session as a board, shall be deemed the commission. No vacancy in the commission shall impair performance of any duty, or for the exercise of any power of ordered or undertaken by the commission in any part of the state. Each witness who shall appear by order of the cominquiry, investigation, hearing, ascertainment or proceeding for the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, books, maps, accounts documents and testimony in any ister oaths, certify to all official acts, and to issue subpoenas SEC. 4. (a) Each commissioner shall have power to admin-

Seal.

Quorum

> not at that time paid or tendered, he shall not be required to attend before the commission or commissioners as directed in he is required to appear and one day's attendance. If such witness demand such fees at the time of service, and they are commission are paid. Any witness subpoenaed, except one whose fees and mileage may be paid from the funds of the of the commission in the same manner as other expenses of the any party shall be subpoenaed by the commission his fees and witness who has not been required to attend at the request of witnesses in civil cases, which amount shall be paid by the for his attendance the same fees and mileage allowed by law to which he is entitled for travel to and from the place at which commission, may, at the time of service, demand the fee to mileage shall be paid from the funds appropriated for the use party at whose request such witness is subpoenaed. mission or any commissioners or a commissioner shall receive sioner or water commissioners out of the county in which he resides, unless the distance be less than thirty miles from his witness before the water commission or any water commisare payable. But no witness shall be compelled to attend as a by action therefor instituted by the person to whom such fees entitled under the provisions of this section may be collected the subpoena. All fees and mileage to which any witness is place of residence to the place of hearing. When any

be held by the commission or any commissioner or commis-attendance sioners shall have the power to compel the attendance of wit-of wit-city and county in which the proceeding is pending by petition, setting forth that due notice has been given of the time and place of attendance of said witness, or for the production of commission, commissioners or commissioner before whom the nesses and the production of papers, maps, books, accounts maps, books, accounts or documents required by such subof any witness to attend or testify or produce any papers, by the commission or any commissioner or commissioners. The documents and testimony as required by any subpoena issued witness has been summoned in the manner prescribed in this said papers, maps, books, accounts or documents and that the testimony is to be given or produced may, in case of the refusal act, and that the witness has failed and refused to attend or poena, report to the superior court in and for the county or order of said court, compelling the witness to attend, testify, and produce said papers, maps, books, accounts or documents and subpoena, or has refused to answer questions propounded or commissioner in the cause or proceeding named in the notice quired by the subpoena before the commission, commissioners, produce the papers, maps, books, accounts or documents reto him in the course of such cause or proceeding, and ask an sioner or commissioner, shall enter an order directing the The court, upon the petition of the commission or commisbefore the commission, or commissioners, or commissioner and upon failure to obey said order said witness shall be deal commissioners or commissioner at the time and place fixed in said order, and testify or produce the required papers, maps. subpoena was regularly issued by the commission or any comcopy of said order and the petition therefor shall be served upon said witness. If it shall appear to the court that said with as for contempt of court. missioners or a commissioner, the court shall thereupon enter books, accounts or documents, or both testify and produce an order that said witness appear before the commission or maps, accounts or documents called for in said subpoena. A any commissioners or any commissioner the books, papers, refused to answer questions propounded to him by said comcause, if any he have, why he refused to obey said subpoena, or fixed by the court in such order, the time to be not more than lected, failed or refused to produce before said commission, or mission, or any commissioners or any commissioner, or negten days from the date of the order, and then and there show witness to appear before the court at a time and place to be manner prescribed by law for depositions in civil actions in the nesses residing within or without the state to be taken in the commissioners or any commissioner cause the deposition of witany investigation or hearing before the commission or any commissioner, or any party to a proceeding before the commission or any commissioners or any commissioner, may in (c) The state water commission or any commissioners or superior courts of this state.

Witness' fees.

Powers.

required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to penalty or forfeiture. But no person shall be prosecuted, punished or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for committed by him in his testimony. dence; provided, that no person so testifying or producing shall commissioners, or any commissioner concerning which he shall vestigation or inquiry by or hearing before the commission of be exempt from prosecution and punishment for any perjury have been compelled to testify or to produce documentary evito the matter under investigation by said commission, or any or on account of any act, transaction, matter or thing material testimony or evidence, book, map, document, paper or account any commissioners or commissioner upon the ground that the ducing any book, map, document, paper or account in any in-(d) No person shall be excused from testifying or from pro ber or members thereof in pursuance of the provisions of this act shall be kept and be placed on file in the office of said water commission. formed or of testimony taken by the commission or any mem-SEC. 5. A full and accurate record of business or acts per-

SEC. 6. The state water commission shall take, charge and collect the following fees: for copies and records not required ten cents for each folio; for certified copies of official documents and orders filed in its office, fifteen cents for each folio, to be certified or otherwise authenticated by the commission, paid, at least once each week, accompanied by a detailed statement thereof, into the treasury of the state. and one dollar for every certificate under seal affixed thereto fix reasonable charges for publications issued under its authorcommission fifteen cents for each folio. The commission may for certified copies of evidence and proceedings before the All fees charged and collected under this section shall be mission; and the state water commission may also employ such scribed and whose salary shall be fixed by the water comperform such other duties as from time to time may be presecretary who shall have charge of its books and records and deem advisable, and to appoint and remove at its pleasure a Secretary. necessary rules and regulations as it may from time to time this act the state water commission is authorized to pass such expert, technical and clerical assistance, and upon such terms, as it may deem proper. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of Rules.

Fees.

Sec. 8. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of Appropriathis act the sum of fifty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated for the fiscal years 1913–1914 and 1914–1915 out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated; and directed to pay such warrants. board of control, and the state treasurer is hereby authorized requisition of the state water commission approved by the state draw warrants upon such sum from time to time upon the and the state controller is hereby authorized and directed to sary costs in traveling and other expenses of said commission, fund indebtedness, and upon the requisition of the state water commission, approved by the state board of control, and the state actually engaged in the business of said commission, shall be and each of its members and persons employed by it, while controller is hereby authorized to draw warrants upon the state expenses and the drawing of similar warrants. as provided by law for the payment of similar costs and treasurer for said indebtedness, salaries, costs and expenses the sworn statement of the person or persons incurring such paid by the state out of the funds hereby appropriated, upon SEC. 9. All indebtedness incurred for salaries, and all neces-Payments.

SEC. 10. The state water commission is hereby authorized To investigate and empowered to investigate for the purpose of this act all streams, streams, stream systems, portions of stream systems, lakes, or etc. other bodies of water, and to take testimony in regard to the laws of this state. filed upon or attempted to be appropriated by any person or the use of said water or any portion thereof, heretofore ascertain whether or not such water, or any portion thereof, rights to water or the use of water thereon or therein, and to firm, association, or corporation, is appropriated under the been appropriated, or which has been heretofore appropriated unapproand which has not been in process, from the date of the initial priated. act of appropriation, of being put, with due diligence in pro-SEC. 11. All water or the use of water which has never Water appropriation, to the useful or beneficial purpose for which it utilize for the purpose of such appropriation such water or the portion to the magnitude of the work necessary properly to lappropriated, is and are hereby declared to be public waters of the State of California and subject to appropriation in was appropriated, with due diligence in proportion to the mag process of being put, from the date of the initial act of which in the future may be appropriated and not be, in the or beneficial purpose for which it was appropriated, or hereafter be appropriated and cease to be put, to the useful to be put to some useful or beneficial purpose, or which may use of water, or which has not been put, or which has ceased any continuous period of ten consecutive years after the passage of this act, such non-application shall be deemed to be to useful and beneficial purpose upon, or in so far as such waters are or may be reasonably needed for useful, and beneexcepting so far as such waters have been or are being applied any river, stream, canyon, ravine or other natural channel declared to be unappropriated. And all waters flowing in of such appropriation such water or the use of water, is hereby nitude of the work necessary properly to utilize for the purpose conclusive presumption that the use of such portions of the ficial purpose to or upon lands riparian to such stream for accordance with the provisions of this act. If any portion of waters of such stream is not needed upon said riparian lands the waters of any stream shall not be put to a useful or beneficial purposes upon lands riparian thereto, or otherwise waters of any stream so non-applied, unless otherwise approfor any useful or beneficial purpose; and such portion of the Public waters.

constitute case where a reservoir or reservoirs have been or shall here-Reservoirs tion in accordance with the provisions of this act. In any after under the provisions of this act be constructed or surstate water commission, constitute a single enterprise and unit and appropriations and rights shall, in the discretion of the ing such reservoir or reservoirs, such reservoir or reservoirs corporation owning such reservoir site or sites and construct are now, or shall hereafter be held and owned by the person or after made, which appropriations and rights thereunder more points under appropriations of water heretofore or here of water for a system, which water is to be used at one or veyed, laid out and proposed to be constructed for the storage of them, or work on any one of such appropriations shall, in and work of constructing such reservoir or reservoirs, or any the discretion of said commission, be sufficient to maintain and thereunder. preserve all such applications for appropriations and rights priated for a useful and beneficial purpose is hereby declared to be in the use of the state and subject to appropria-

SEC. 12. The state water commission shall have authority to, and may, for good cause shown, upon the application of any appropriator or user of water under an appropriation made and maintained according to law prior to the passage cost of the old and the new works, said pro rata of this act, prescribe the time within which the full amount of doing so said commission shall also take into consideration the cost of the application of such water to the useful or beneficial of the works or canal or ditch or conduits or storage system commission shall grant a reasonable time after the construction water to a beneficial use; and in determining said time said tude of the project, to carry on the work necessary to put the have proceeded, with due diligence in proportion to the magnificial purpose; provided, that said appropriator or user shall used for the diversion, conveyance or storage of water; and in the water appropriated shall be applied to a useful or benesuch time the state water commission shall issue a certificate and the income or use that may be required to provide fair purpose, the good faith of the appropriator, the market for to be putting said water to a beneficial use. granting further certificates. And, for the time so prescribed shown, the state water commission may extend the time by showing its determination of the matter. For good cause facts or matters pertinent to the inquiry. and reasonable returns upon the investment and any other water or power to be supplied, the present demand therefor, or extended, the said appropriator or user shall be deemed Upon prescribing

And if at any time it shall appear to the state water commis- Joint use sion, after a hearing of the parties interested and an investiga- when tion, that the full capacity of the works built or constructed, or original being built or constructed, under an appropriation of water or unable to the point where said works have been or are being built or connot or cannot, within a period deemed to be reasonable by the structed, and that the holder of the said appropriation will developed or cannot develop the full capacity of the stream at capacity the use thereof made under the provisions of this act has not develop good, then and in that case the said commission, in its discrecapacity as the commission deems to be required by the public commission, develop the said stream at said point to such a stream to its full capacity or to such portion of said capacity of the appropriation, to the extent necessary to develop the tion, may permit the joint occupancy and use, with the holder applying therefor, of any dam, tunnel, diversion works, ditch, as may appear to the state water commission to be advisable, wided, that said commission shall take into consideration the in process of being built or constructed under this act; proor other works or constructions already built or constructed or by any and all persons, firms, associations, or corporations such cost; provided, further, that the applicant or appli- to pay of the applicant, the market for water or power to be supplied reasonable cost of the original and new work, the good faith works or constructions a pro rata portion of the total cants shall be required to pay to the party or parties own profits ing said dam, tunnel, diversion works, ditch, or other of cost. may be required to provide fair and reasonable returns upon by the original and the new work, and the income or use that

Time within which water must be applied for joint occupancy shall be required to pay to the party or parties owning said dam, tunnel, diversion works, ditch, or other works or constructions a pro rata portion of the total cost of the old and new works, said pro rata portion to be shall be used for the generation of electricity or electrical or works, ditch, or other works or construction, shall be used for original and the new works; or, if a portion of the water utilelectrical or other power capable of being developed by the electricity, or electrical or other power, the said pro rata portion shall be based upon the relative amount of electricity or or, if the water is used or to be used for the generation of water is used or to be used for irrigation or domestic purposes tion to be based upon the proportion of the water used by such a pro rata portion of the total cost of the old and new works as shall appear to the state water commission to be just and equitable. Said applicant or applicants shall also be said joint occupant from said joint occupancy; or, if any of used by each joint occupant and the income derived by each other power, then and in that case the applicant or applicants the purpose of irrigation and another portion of said water ized under a joint occupancy of any dam, tunnel diversion diversion works, ditch, or other works or constructions, if the constructed, under an appropriation of water or the use thererequired to pay a proper pro rata share, based as above, of the cost of maintaining said dam, tunnel, diversion works, ditch or the waters used under such joint occupancy shall be utilized for purposes other than those specified above, then and in that based upon the proportion of the relative amount of water the original and the subsequent users of said dam, tunnel, enlarge, at his or its proper cost, charge and expense, any dam, tunnel, diversion works, ditch, or other works or capacity of the works built or constructed, or being built or sion if it appears to the said commission that the full other works or constructions, on and after beginning the occutunnel, diversion works, ditch, or other works or constructions, case the applicant or applicants for such joint occupany shall corporation to repair, improve, add to, supplement, or so finds after investigation and hearing of the parties the public good requires it, and the commission specifically stream at that point, and it appears to the commission that of under this act, will not develop the full capacity of the pancy and use thereof. Furthermore, the state water commisbe required to pay to the party or parties owning said dam, use the same jointly with the owners thereof; provided, that built or constructed under the provisions of this act, and to constructions already built or constructed or in process of being interested, may permit any person, firm, association or

Pro rata cost of maintenance. allow any Commis-> mine the pro rata and other costs provided for in this section. or constructions. And the state water commission shall deter-the tribunals as provided in this act. ascertained, adjudicated and determined in the manner and by rights, SEC. 13. All rights granted or declared by this act shall be Adjudica-expressly provided in this act, upon any person, firm, associa-bestowed tion or corporation, any right where no such right existed prior SEC. 14. This act shall not be held to bestow, except as Rights to the time this act takes effect.

ship or appropriation finds its way back into a stream, lake or or which may hereafter be declared to be unappropriated, or which, having been used under claim of riparian proprietor-SEC. 15. The state water commission shall allow, under use of the provisions of this act, the appropriation of unappropriated water or of the use thereof, or of water or of water. section eleven of this act to be subject to appropriation. other body of water and also such water as is declared under the use thereof which may hereafter cease to be appropriated

SEC. 16. Every application for a permit to appropriate Application for water shall set forth the name and postoffice address of the appropriate Application for water shall set forth the name and postoffice address of the appropriate Application for the state of the second se plicant, the source of water supply, the nature and amount of the proposed use, the location and description of the proposed headworks, ditch, canal and other works; the proposed place of power purposes, it shall give, besides the general requirements prescribed above, the nature of the works by means of which above general requirements, give the legal subdivisions of the for the complete application of the water to the proposed use. the time within which it is proposed to begin construction, the diversion and the place where it is intended to use the water; land and the acreage to be irrigated, as near as may be; if for If for agricultural purposes, the application shall, besides the capacity of the reservoir, and the use to be made of the general requirements prescribed above, the height of dam, the if for storage in a reservoir, it shall give, in addition to the population to be served, and, as near as may be, the future besides the general requirements specified above, the present impounded waters; if for municipal water supply, it shall give be utilized, and the use to which the power is to be applied; the power is to be developed, the head and amount of water to shall be considered as part of the application. If any per change of mittee or licensee, or the heirs, successors, or assigns of any point of diversion. water commission, and such maps, drawings, and other data be accompanied by as many copies of such maps, drawings, and other data as may be prescribed or required by the state of supplying and utilizing the water. nature and location of the mines to be served and the methods in addition to the general requirements prescribed above, the requirements of the city; if for mining purposes, it shall give, tion, or after the granting of any permit or license, such change from the point of diversion specified in the original applicapermittee or licensee, desire to change the point of diversion All applications shall Maps.

injure said dam, tunnel, diversion works, ditch or other works ditch, or other works or constructions or shall not materially thereof by the owner of said dam, tunnel, diversion works, enlarging, shall not materially interfere with the proper use the said repairing, improving, adding to, supplementing, or nor more than sixty days after the period of said publication, a time for the hearing of said application and of the objections thereto, which time shall be not less than thirty days sion shall, by order, fix a time within which any person interfind, that such change in the place of diversion will not operate to the injury of any other appropriator or legal user of such waters before permitting such change in the place of place of diversion. refuse, as the facts shall warrant, such permission to change and upon such hearing the said commission shall grant or diversion so applied for, the state water commission shall fix Should any objection be made to the change in point of shall be by affidavit of the publisher of such newspaper diversion, a copy of said order. Proof of such publication county in which is situated both the old and new points of a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the published at least once a week for four consecutive weeks, in applicant shall, if the commission so require, cause to be ested may appear in opposition to such application, and such the diversion. Upon receipt of application for permission to make such change in the place of diversion, the commiswater commission; provided, that, before granting such of the state water commission, and such commission must so permission, such applicant must establish, to the satisfaction or changes may be made only upon the permission of the state and regulations of the water commission shall be followed by the applicant. Upon the approval of any application by the commission, said approval shall give priority of right as of the the purpose allowed in said approval; provided, that any defective application made in a bona fide attempt to conform rejected by said commission; provided, that such priority shall continue only so long as the provisions of law and the rules any application so made shall give to the applicant a priority of right as of the date of said application to such water or the said commission in what respect his application is defective to the rules and regulations of the state water commission and give the right to take and use water only to the extent and for of said amount of water, or until the said commission refuses issuance by the state water commission of a license for the use use the amount of water specified in said approval until the date of said application, and shall give the right to take and water which having been appropriated or used flows back into a stream, lake or other body of water within this state. And commission, a permit for any unappropriated water or for and regulations adopted from time to time by the state water SEC. 17. Any person, firm, association or corporation may apply for and secure from the state water commission, in conthe date of said application until he shall have been notified by to the law shall secure to the applicant a priority of right as of to issue said license. But the approval of any application shall use thereof until such application shall have been approved or formity with this act and in conformity with reasonable rules

Permit.

And said applicant shall be allowed sixty days after notice of said defect in which to file an amended and perfected application. If, within said sixty days, said applicant shall not file an amended and perfected application, said priority of right shall cease and determine, unless for good cause shown the state water commission shall allow said applicant to file a further amended and perfected application; provided, also, that any priority of right secured under this section shall not be effective for more than thirty days after service of notice of such approval, personally or by registered mail, on the applicant, unless within said period of thirty days a true copy of said approval upon which such priority is based shall have been filed in the office of the recorder of the county or city and county in which the water is to be diverted, and, within ten days thereafter, a certificate of such filing by the county recorder is also filed with the state water commission.

a period specified in the permit; but the period of completion specified in the permit may, for good cause shown, be extended with law, the rules and regulations of the state water commission, and the terms of the approved application and within commission; and said work shall be completed in accordance shall not be less than sixty days from date of said approval and the construction of the work thereafter shall be prosecuted begin within such time after the date of the approval of the struction application as shall be specified in said approval, which time work. shall, after notice in writing and mailed in a sealed, postage-prepaid and registered letter addressed to the applicant at approved application, and the rules and regulations of said with due diligence in accordance with this act, the terms of the of whose application shall have been thus revoked, shall have of order, the right to bring an action in the superior court of the county ate water, and a hearing before the commission, revoke its commenced, prosecuted and completed, the water commission tion of permit. by the state water commission. And if such work be not so Revocasaid permit shall cease and lapse, unless said permittee shall in which is situated the point of proposed diversion of the water for a review of the order of the commission revoking approval of the application. But any applicant, the approval Review the address given in his application for a permit to appropriashall continue under said permit until a final judgment is revocation of said permit all rights of the said permittee under said approval of the application. And thirty days after the which is granted by said permit. shall be finally decreed by such court, the permittee shall within said thirty days after said revocation bring an action not take or use any of the water the right to take and use Report on rendered as to the reasonableness of the revocation of said The priority of right of any permittee so bringing an action in the superior court for a review of the order of revocation But until and unless the revocation of the permit Actual construction work upon any project shall Beginning empletion, 19. Immediately upon completion, in accordance with of works.

Amended application.

and the terms of the permit, of the project under such applisaid works is in conformity with law, the terms of the approved constructed and shall determine whether the construction of to be made a full inspection and examination of the works water shall report said completion to the state water commiscation, the holder of a permit for the right to appropriate law, the rules and regulations of the state water commission, in such form as may be prescribed by the state water commission under the provisions of this act. But if the said commissaid determination is favorable to the applicant, issue a license application, the rules and regulations of the state water commission, and the permit. The said water commission shall, if of the state water commission, the terms of the approved application and the terms of the permit, then and in that case sion shall find, upon inspection and examination of the works the purpose of the approved application. Said license shall be of water and to the use thereof as may be necessary to fulfill which shall give the right to the diversion of such an amount are not in conformity with the law, the rules and regulations constructed, that the construction and condition of said works of the permit under said application and permit shall lapse and cease. But the holder of any permit to whom the said thousand and twelve, and one thousand and thirteen of the the manner provided in sections one thousand and eleven, one the said commission may, after due notice in writing and in to issue said license all rights of the applicant and the holder permit, and a public hearing thereon, refuse to issue said Code of Civil Procedure to the applicant or the holder of the and to obtain a decree requiring the issuance of such license. And the rights of the holder of any permit so bringing an water commission may have refused to issue said license, shall license. And thirty days after the refusal of said commission such action has been entered and become final. But until the the said refusal, in the superior court to review said order have the right to bring an action within thirty days after determined by the courts, the permittee shall not take or use refusal of the commission to issue said license shall be finally action shall continue under said permit until the decree in any of the water, the taking and using of which is granted to him by said permit. And if the holder of any permit which case all rights of the applicant and of the holder of said perto determine the validity of said revocation, then and in that bring an action within said thirty days in the superior court has been revoked by the state water commission shall not The said commission shall immediately thereafter cause of water shall be under the terms and conditions of this act, appropriated under such permits and licenses shall actually be and shall be effective for such time as the water actually mit shall lapse and cease. used for the useful and beneficial purpose for which said water was appropriated, but no longer; and every such permit or SEC. 20. All permits and licenses for the appropriation conditions of permits and licenses.

and in the event that the said state, city, city and county, Determinamunicipal water district, irrigation district, lighting district tion of price. have the right to purchase the works and property occupied and used under said license and the works built or constructed manner as is now or may hereafter be determined in eminent domain proceedings. If it shall appear to the state water grounds or political subdivision of the state so desiring to purchase and the said owner of said works and property cannot agree upon provided, that if, at any time after the expiration of twenty city, etc., years after the granting of a license, the state, or any city, city purchase section and likewise the statement that any appropriator of which in substance shall include all of the provisions of this said purchase price, said price shall be determined in such for the enjoyment of the rights granted under said license: and county, municipal water district, irrigation district, light-works. the same subject to such conditions as therein expressed water, to whom said permit or license may be issued, shall take license shall include the enumeration of conditions therein pose, or that the permittee or licensee, or the heirs, successors or assigns of said permittee or licensee, has failed to this act provided that the permittee or licensee, or the license, heirs, successors, or assigns of said permittee or licensee, has commission at any time after a permit or license is issued as in rev ing district, or any political subdivision of the state shall value whatsoever in excess of the actual amount paid to the state therefor shall at any time be assigned to or claimed for shall accept the same under the conditions precedent that no or assigns. And every licensee or permittee under the ralue of provisions of this act if he accepts such permit or license tent jurisdiction; provided, that any action brought so to modify or set aside such finding or declaration must be comthereon, may revoke said permit or license and declare the water to be unappropriated and open to further appropriation after due notice to the permittee, licensee, or the heirs, sucobserve any of the terms and conditions in the permit or the heirs, successors, or assigns of said permittee or licensee, has ceased to put said water to such useful or beneficial purnot put the water granted under said permit or license to the useful or beneficial purpose for which the permit or license was granted, or that the permittee or licensee, or revocation on said permittee or licensee, his heirs, successors menced within thirty days after the service of notice of said and declaration of said commission shall be deemed to be prima in accordance with the terms of this act. And the findings cessors or assigns of such permittee or licensee, and a hearing services to be rendered by any permittee or licensee, his heirs of this act, or for any rights granted or acquired under the any permit or license granted or issued under the provisions facie correct until modified or set aside by a court of compelicense as issued, then and in that case the said commission, competent public authority of the services or the price of the provisions of this act, in respect to the regulation by any use of water under this act shall pay to the state water commaking application for a permit to appropriate water or the works up to one hundred theoretical horsepower, with a minimum fee of twenty-five dollars, and above said one hundred up to and including ten thousand theoretical horsepower, theoretical horsepower the fee shall be five hundred dollars other power, a fee of two dollars and fifty cents for each pose or use is for the generation of electricity, or electrical or For elecmission, at the time of filing said application, if the pur-theoretical horsepower capable of being developed by the power capable of being so developed or a fee of ten dollars if the purpose be other than for the generation of electricity, and one thousand dollars above ten thousand theoretical horse-or corporation at the time of receiving a license to appropriate or electrical or other power. Every person, firm, association Annual after, a charge of twenty-five cents for each theoretical horsecommission when the said license is issued, and annually thereof electricity, or electrical or other power, shall pay to said water or the use of water, if the purpose be for the generation power capable of being developed by the proposed works. If

Every person, firm, association, or corporation Fees.

City may successors or assigns or by the holder of any rights granted or water commission may authorize such municipality to become as control of the railroad commission of the State of California said application it may so do upon making just compensation to such surplus a public utility, subject to the jurisdiction and tion permitted; and provided, further, that when such municfor the application to municipal uses of the entire appropriaissuance of such permission to appropriate, as may be allowed taken by and through eminent domain proceedings.

one cubic foot per second. Provided, however, that no an-No charge nual charge shall be made when the appropriation is made for irrigan nual charge shall be made when the appropriation is made for irrigan nual charge shall be made when the appropriation is made for irrigan nual charge shall be made when the appropriation is made for irrigan nual charge shall be made when the appropriation is made for irrigan nual charge shall be made when the appropriation is made for irrigan nual charge shall be made when the appropriation is made for irrigan nual charge shall be made when the appropriation is made for irrigan nual charge shall be made when the appropriation is made for irrigan nual charge shall be made when the appropriation is made for irrigan nual charge shall be made when the appropriation is made for irrigan nual charge shall be made when the appropriation is made for irrigan nual charge shall be made when the appropriation is made for irrigan nual charge shall be made when the appropriation is made to the charge shall be made to the charge sha one hundred and sixty acres in area, to be actually occupied for use for irrigation purposes upon lands not exceeding purpose of this act forty miner's inches shall be equivalent to inch for each miner's inch specified in the license, and for the exceed fifty horsepower and is for the private use of the approis used for the generation of power when the same does not not exceed five hundred miner's inches, or when the water the amount of water so used for such mining purposes does him, or when said water is used for mining purposes, and by such appropriator and cultivated in whole or in part by subject to change by law at not less than ten years intervals, beginning with the date of the license issued by the state water the fee and annual charges provided in this section shall be paid into the state treasury by the state water commission, and priator. And all such fees and charges shall forthwith be and annually thereafter, a charge of ten cents per miner's shall pay to the said commission when said license is issued, tion or corporation receiving a license to appropriate water ity, or electrical or other power, every person, firm, associathe purpose or use is for other than the generation of electric-subdivision of the state, or any person, company or corporawater district, irrigation district, lighting district or political deprive the state or any city, city and county, municipal tion of any rights which, under the law of this state they may have, to acquire property by or through eminent domain SEC. 21. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to water shall be subject to the right of the state to impose the fees and charges provided in this act. Licenses hereafter granted for water or use of licensee, or the possessor of any rights granted, issued, or acquired under the provisions of this act. The application valuation for purposes of sale to or purchase, whether through condemnation proceedings or otherwise, by the state or ing of such temporary permits for appropriation, the state municipality; and providing further, that in lieu of the grantabove the quantity being applied from time to time by such shall have the power to issue permits for the temporary appropriation of the excess of such permitted appropriation over and ing municipal needs therefor, that pending the application of the entire appropriation permitted, the state water commission priate is granted by the state water commission to any poses, and providing further that where permission to approthe appropriation of any water for other than municipal purto any municipality to appropriate waters, shall not authorize they are first in time; provided, however, that such applica-tion for a permit or the granting thereafter of permission municipalities or the inhabitants thereof for domestic purfor a permit by municipalities for the use of water for said tion district, lighting district or any political subdivision of the state, of the rights and property of any permittee or any city, city and county, municipal water district, irrigaacquired under the provisions of this act, or in respect to any pensation, if not agreed upon between the municipality and said person, firm or corporation, may be determined in the municipality for any quantity of water in excess of the existposes shall be considered first in right, irrespective of whether ipality shall desire to use the additional water granted in its for such period or periods from and after the date of the manner provided by law for determining the value of property person, firm or corporation which constructed said facilities tional water rendered valueless for said purposes, to the for the facilities for taking, conveying and storing such addifor the temporary use of said excess waters, and which com-

SEC. 24. Upon its own initiative or upon petition signed Ascertain-by one or more claimants to water or the use of water upon any rights of stream, stream system, lake, or other body of water, requesting conflicting claims. commission. ants to the water or the use of water of that stream, stream the state water commission, if upon investigation, it finds system, lake or other body of water, it shall be the duty of he ascertainment of the relative rights of the various claim. SEC. 24. Upon its own initiative or upon petition signed the facts and conditions are such as to justify, to make ar

Courts may trans-fer cases mission.

eleven, one thousand and twelve, and one thousand and thirteen of the Code of Civil Procedure all persons, firms, assowater commission for investigation, as referee. In any case wherein the water commission shall proceed to investigate or may, in the discretion of the court, be transferred to the state determination of rights to water or the use of water, the case ciations or corporations claiming or possessing any water writing in the manner provided in sections one thousand and ascertain water rights the said commission shall notify in claimants. In case suit is brought in the superior court for ning of the taking of testimony and the making of such invescommission. rights which are to be the subject of ascertainment by the said tigation as will enable it to ascertain the rights of the various ascertainment of the said rights, fixing a time for the begin open to that testi-

and place named in the said notices, which date shall not be sion shall immediately give notice by registered mail to the and evidence by the state water commission, the said commiscause its findings and ascertainment of the rights of the respec-tive claimants to said water to be made and filed in the superior dence shall be held open to public inspection at said places court in each of the counties where said water is appropriated than ninety days, and thereafter the said commission shall for a specified period of not less than thirty days nor more be open to public inspection. And said testimony and evithe date of said notice, all of said testimony and evidence will less than fifteen days nor more than thirty days later than SEC. 25. Upon the completion of the taking of testimony

Contests of right to water.

stream system, lake or other body of water, desires to contest any of the interests in or rights to any of the said waters of shall within ten days after the expiration of the period for any other person, firm, association or corporation such person, firm, association or corporation desiring so to contest water commission of the rights to the water of said stream of any stream, stream system, lake or other body of water claiming or possessing any interest in or right to the waters involved in any investigation or ascertainment by the state ant and the person, firm, association or corporation whose so to contest. Said notice shall state the ground of contest, act, notify, in writing, the state water commission of said desire public inspection prescribed in section twenty-five of this contest will be heard; provided, that said time shall not be specified in said notice, and that at said time and place said rights are contested to appear before it at a time and place contest the state water commission shall notify the contestor attorney. which shall be verified by the oath of the contestant, his agent further, that if any person, firm, association or corporation of the service of the notice of the commission; provided less than thirty days nor more than sixty days from the date SEC. 26. If any person, firm, association or corporation Within ten days of the receipt of the notice of > desires to contest any such ascertainment by the state water commission as hereinbefore provided, such contest may be brought as provided in sections 31 and 32 hereof.

superior courts of this state. The water commission shall have summons and return thereon are made in civil actions in the before it and produce papers, books, maps and other docupoenas for and compel the attendance of witnesses to testify reasonable notice to all parties in interest, and to issue subpower to adjourn hearings of contest from time to time upon served and return made thereon in the same manner in which SEC. 27. Said notice by said water commission shall be Service of the said commission shall enter an order directing the return of the deposit to the depositor if the contest shall be determined paid into the state treasury. the person bringing it, the said deposit shall be immediately in his favor, but, if the contest shall be determined against ascertainment by the state water commission in any contest, engaged in taking testimony in such contest. Upon the final six of this act a deposit of five dollars for each day it shall be the party bringing the contest before it under section twenty. The state water commission shall require from Deposit.

shall be filed in the office of the water commission. water commission, the testimony and evidence in the original than thirty days after the settlement of said contest by the if any contest shall be made, not less than fifteen days nor more mony and evidence is to be kept open for public inspection, or days after the expiration of the period during which the testi-dence fled hearing and the testimony and evidence taken in said contest Not less than fifteen days nor more than thirty Testimony water. The results of said examination shall be filed in the office off said commission and be open to public inspection as provided in this act for the filing and public inspection of water therefrom as the said commission may require, as well as such other data and information as may, in the discretion of the other evidence of a like nature. waters of said stream, stream system, lake, or other body of said commission, be necessary to enable it properly to ascertain other body of water and the various ditches and canals taking whatever data covering said stream, stream system, lake or stream system, lake or other body of water cause to be made SEC. 30. The water commission may, in its discretion and Examinatin addition to the testimony and evidence submitted to it by the stream, an examination of said stream, stream system, lake or other the relative rights of the parties claiming rights to use the therefrom. body of water and the works diverting or utilizing water therefrom. Said examination may include the gathering of parties claimant to or possessors of water rights on any stream, The results of said examination shall be filed in the gathering and filing of such data and information as the mony and evidence, the hearing of contest, and the the said water commission shall record in its office its ascerwater commission shall, of its own motion, direct to be gathered As soon as practicable after the hearing of testi-rindings.

tainment of and specific findings upon the rights of the several claimants to the use of the waters of any stream, stream system, lake or other body of water. Immediately thereafter, the said water commission shall file a certified copy of said ascertainment and specific findings together with the original evidence and testimony taken before it and all data and information gathered by its order with the clerk of the superior court in and for the county in which such stream, stream system, lake or other body of water or any part thereof is situated.

Sec. 32. After the filing with the clerk of the superior

Action in t

Findings, evidence of facts.

the state water commission, by the attorney general in said superior court in which said evidence, data, information, specific findings and ascertainment shall have been so filed. Or court of the evidence, data, same shall be received in the superior court as prima facie and ascertainment as required by section 31 of this act, the therein set forth. And at any time within one year after evidence of the facts, specific findings and ascertainment such filing an action may be brought, upon the direction of an action may be brought in said court by any one or more of the possessors or claimants concerning whose rights to any of cific findings and ascertainment filed in said court. Said water the state water commission shall have made the spethe waters of the stream, stream system, lake or other body of California to quiet the title of the State of California or the people thereof to any and all water or water in the name and behalf of the action if brought by the attorney general shall be brought system, lake or other body of water, and, to cause all parties rights which it may have in or on said stream, stream whose rights have been so ascertained to appear and interplead action. And if an action be brought by any one or more of said claimants or possessors, said action may be brought in the their respective rights, which rights, as against the state and in said action in defense and determination of each and all of among themselves, shall be determined by the court in said with regard to the different rights and priorities of said rights said action in defense and determination of each and all of their whose rights have been ascertained, to appear and interplead in name of the said possessor or claimant and to cause all parties, people thereof, and with regard to the different rights and respective rights, which rights, as against the state or the priorities of said rights among themselves shall be determined of this state; provided, that the evidence, data, information, accordance with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure as in other cases heard and determined in said court, and in the complaint in such action, the proceedings therein shall by the court in said action. And from and after the filing of court as provided in section 31 of this act must be considered specific findings and ascertainment so filed with the superior by said court in its determination of both or either of said information, specific findings people of the State of actions, and the court may affirm, modify or reject such specific findings and ascertainment and may make other or different findings as in its judgment the evidence justifies.

SEC. 33. All existing lawful appropriations of water of Lawful the use thereof, shall be and hereby are respected and upheld tions to extent of the amount of water appropriated and actually respected. put or in process of being put, from the initial date of the act of appropriation, with due diligence in proportion to the magnitude of the work necessary properly to utilize the water for the useful or beneficial purpose for which it was appropriated, or for which it is being used.

claimant who shall fail to appear in such proceedings and submit proof of his claim shall be barred and estopped from interested therein and having notice thereof as in this act water or the use of water, it shall be the duty of all claimants SEC. 34. Whenever proceedings shall be instituted for Duty of the ascertainment by the state water commission of rights to damants to damants. other body of water, unless entitled to relief under the laws of this state; provided, that such proceedings shall result in subsequently asserting any rights theretofore acquired upon at the time and in the manner required by law; and any such provided to appear and submit proof of their respective claims specific findings. specific findings or a modification of said ascertainment or fore claimed by him on such stream, stream system, lake or water, embraced in such proceedings, and shall be held to have portion of such stream, stream system, lake or other body of the stream, stream system, lake or other body of water, or by the superior court based upon such ascertainment and an ascertainment by the state water commission and a decree forfeited all rights to said water or the use of water thereto-

SEC. 35. In any suit wherein the state is or the people of Parties the state are a party for the determination of a right to the use of the water of any stream, stream system, lake or other body of water, or of any portion of any stream, stream system, lake or other body of water, all who claim the right to use such water shall be made parties. When any such suit has been Hydrofiled the court may call upon the state water commission to graphic make or furnish a complete hydrographic survey of such stream, stream system, lake or other body of water, in order to obtain all the data necessary to the determination of the rights involved in such suit may be taxed by the court as in other equity suits, exclusive of the cost of such hydrographic survey.

SEC. 36. Upon the adjudication of the rights to the use Copy of of the water of a stream, or stream system, lake or other body with comof water, or any portion of a stream, stream system, lake or mission other body of water, a certified copy of the decree shall be prepared by the clerk of the court, without charge, and filed in the office of the state water commission, and said commission shall deliver to every party in such decree a certified copy thereof upon demand and the payment of the fees provided in said stream, stream system, lake or other body of water is shall be appurtenant, together with such other conditions as every case declare as to the water right adjudged to each situated, a certified copy of said decree. Said decree shall in office of the recorder of each county in which any portion of copy of said decree shall not be considered to have prejudiced may be necessary to define the right and its priority. But the decree shall also declare the specific tracts of land to which it of use of said water; and, as to water used for irrigation, such priority, amount, purpose of use point of diversion, and place party, whether riparian or by appropriation, the extent, the this act. And the said commission shall file, for record, in the him or his rights in any way. failure of any party entitled thereto to demand or receive a commission. in the judiciary of the state, is hereby vested in the state water when such supervision does not contravene the authority vested in accordance with the priorities established under this act SEC. 37. The power to supervise the distribution of water

supervise distribution of Power to

Unauthor-ized diver-, tresvisions of this act other than as it is in this act authorized is sion is hereby authorized to institute in the superior court in appropriate action to have such trespass enjoined. and for any county wherein such diversion or use is attempted hereby declared to be a trespass, and the state water commis-SEC. 38. The diversion or use of water subject to the pro-

Water ap-propriated specific been appropriated or acquired, or which shall hereafter be apapplying to the state water commission for a license to approent purpose. And any person, firm, association or corporation deemed to be appropriated or acquired for any other or differfor said license the specific purpose to which it is proposed to put such water or the use thereof. Water heretofore or herepropriated or acquired for one specific purpose shall not be priate water or the use of water shall state in the application SEC. 39. Water or the use of water which has heretofore investigaing flood or other waters not under beneficial use in any stream stream system or lake or other body of water, and to and empowered to investigate any natural situation available shall not injure any previous appropriation. for reservoirs or reservoir systems for gathering and distribut-SEC. 40. The state water commission is also authorized distinct appropriation being made therefor. And water appro-to domestic use, in whole or in part, without a separate and sions of this act; provided, that such subsequent appropriation subsequently appropriated for other purposes under the provipriated for one purpose under the provisions of this act may be after appropriated for other than domestic use, may be applied character of the areas that may be thereby irrigated, and of water that may thereby be made available, the extent and ascertain the feasibility of such projects, including the supply limited. cities, etc., make estimate of the cost of such project. ing any city, city and county, municipal water district, irri-Nothing in this act shall be construed as depriv-> whatsoever the right or power of any municipality which has gation district or lighting district of the benefit of any law and nothing in this act shall affect or limit in any manner with laws in effect at the time of the passage of this act. limits for domestic, irrigation or other purposes, in accordance of such water or the use thereof, either within or without its the appropriation or acquisition of water or the use of water; for municipal purposes, to use or to sell or otherwise dispose heretofore appropriated or acquired water or the use of water heretofore or hereafter passed for their benefit in regard to

of any water; provided, that the term "useful or beneficial "Useful or beneficial confirming any right, or title, or interest to or in the corpus embracing the term "or use of water"; and the term "or use of water" in this act shall be construed as embracing the word of land not devoted to cultivated crops. purposes" as used in this act shall not be construed to mean purposes." nels.] But nothing in this act shall be construed as giving or shall be interpreted to refer only to surface water, and to sub-"water." [Whenever the terms stream stream system, lake or other body of water or water occurs in this act, such term feet of water per acre in the irrigation of uncultivated areas the use in any one year of more than two and one half acre erranean streams flowing through known and definite chan-SEC. 42. The word "water" in this act shall be construed as "Water."

ing any person, firm, association or corporation of the right of Nothing in this act shall be construed as depriv-Right of appeal conferred under the laws of this state.

Sec. 44. All acts or parts of acts in conflict herewith are sion act." hereby repealed. SEC. 45. This This act shall be known as the "water commis- of act such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining por clause and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, of act. phrases be declared unconstitutional. or more other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or have passed this act, and each section, subsection, sentence tions of this act. The legislature hereby declares that it would If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or Constitu-