

RIVERSIDE EXHIBIT 2-3

SUMMARY OF PETITION FOR CHANGE WW-0045

Petitioner: City of Riverside

Place of Use:

Present: 41 acres at the Van Buren Golf Center and about 10 acres at the Van Buren median and frontage (Urban Forest); industrial use at the Toro Manufacturing Company.

Future: Numerous schools, cemeteries, golf courses, parks, landscaped areas, and greenbelts, and process water uses at various industries, all within the City of Riverside's City Limits and Water Service Area Boundary, and within the boundary of the Jurupa Area Plan, as shown on the map accompanying this petition, and as further identified in the City of Riverside's Recycled Water Phase 1 Feasibility Study and Citywide Master Plan (September 2003); agricultural irrigation of about 5,600 acres of citrus orchards and nurseries within the aforementioned boundaries.

Purpose of Use:

Present: Irrigation, industrial

Future: Municipal and industrial, irrigation

Amount discharged to Santa Ana River:

Present: About 36,000 acre-feet annually

Future: Minimum 25,000 acre-feet annually; estimated long-term of 26,000 acre-feet annually